What ever your doing right now, whatever your thinking, or worrying about. stop. take a huge breathe in, and just enjoy being alive.

~Tom Odell

I have always liked clothes and fashion. And really, being a British male, I am automatically the best dressed person in any room - especially in America.

~Tom Odell

Throughout my entire life, I constantly tried to fight normality. I hate it. I hate the idea of it. I hate routine. I hate anything that feels remotely regular or right.

~Tom Odell

Songs are about just being totally honest and putting those words to music.

~Tom Odell

I don't think competition is good in music. What is good, is the desire and the ambition to create your best work.

~Tom Odell

I really want to come back! I definitely want to come back. Some of my fondest memories are in New Zealand.

~Tom Odell

I'm so used to it, I think I'd feel very naked on stage without a piano.

~Tom Odell

You don't have to be as good a writer to write a song; it's a very different process to writing straight prose. To learn how to write prose takes a lot of years of practice.

~Tom Odell

I love the band Haim. I would love to do something with them.

~Tom Odell

I just never really thought of not being involved, because when I write the songs I take them to a certain place and by that point I kinda know what I want them to sound like.

~Tom Odell

The sound is very much always in my head, I have to get the sound out of my head onto the recording.

~Tom Odell

I think particularly in music, popularity is a very fickle thing. You're only as good as your last song.
