Sometimes thinking too much can destroy your momentum.

~Tom Watson

There is no surer or more painful way to learn a rule than to be penalized once for breaking it.

~Tom Watson

No other game combines the wonder of nature with the discipline of sport in such carefully planned ways. A great golf course both frees and challenges a golfer's mind.

~Tom Watson

I learned how to win by losing and not liking it.

~Tom Watson

Confidence in golf means being able to concentrate on the problem at hand with no outside interference.

~Tom Watson

I'd rather fight 100 structure fires than a wildfire. With a structure fire you know where your flames are, but in the woods it can move anywhere; it can come right up behind you.

~Tom Watson

A lot of guys who have never choked, have never been in the position to do so.

~Tom Watson

If a course needs to be in great condition to be played effectively, then the design strategy is flawed.

~Tom Watson

If you have an ego of any sort, this course [Augusta] will take it and shove it down your throat.

~Tom Watson

This game is so elusive. You try to maintain the peaks and level up the valleys.

~Tom Watson

The person I fear most in the last two rounds is myself.

~Tom Watson

Golf will grow so long as it's fun.

~Tom Watson

Having played the Old Course many times since my first visit in 1981, I am now of the opinion it is one of the best and most beautiful tests of links golf anywhere in the world.

~Tom Watson

Muirfield without a wind is like a lady undressed. No challenge.

~Tom Watson

After playing Ballybunion for the first time, a man would think that the game of golf originated here.

~Tom Watson

Ballybunion is the course on which many golf architects should live and play on before they build golf courses.

~Tom Watson

All the problems of the world could be settled easily if men were only willing to think.
