I love being under pressure. Even the pressure put on me by the media. That is how you outdo yourself.

~Tony Parker

I want to follow in my father's footsteps, but do it better.

~Tony Parker

The day when I am satisfied with what I have, will be the day I retire from the sport.

~Tony Parker

I still have a lot of room for improvement. I need to become a more skilled player.

~Tony Parker

In France, if you talk to little boys, they know all of the NBA players and not one single Pro A player.

~Tony Parker

I want to become the first European floor leader to succeed in the NBA. I want to be the standard-bearer and prove we can succeed here.

~Tony Parker

I don't think I'm boring.

~Tony Parker

You're going to see ups and downs your whole career.

~Tony Parker

Getting up at three in the morning to watch Michael Jordan, I never dreamed one day I would be kissing that trophy.

~Tony Parker

When you win 20 games in a row and then lose four, people ask you,

'What happened?'...That's the beauty of sports.

~Tony Parker

When I first came in the league, a lot of people were surprised by my knowledge about the history of the game.

~Tony Parker

If Tim Duncan had Knicks on his jersey, he'd be a god.

~Tony Parker

You never know, the way technology is going, we might all use the games for scouting by the time I retire.

~Tony Parker

For me, speed isn't anything I ever practiced. It's all in the genes. Plus, my mom gave me a lot of vitamins when I was small.

~Tony Parker

If we go to the conference finals and people say we had a bad season, I'll take that.
