I never felt like I was forced to do anything.

~Tove Styrke

I've always been singing and making noise. I used to do that all the time when I was a kid. My mom would get very frustrated with me because I would just sit around and make noises.

~Tove Styrke

I think it's very easy to get self-conscious and stuck when you're doing everything on your own.

~Tove Styrke

I never learned to play properly either, I was a little bit too lazy for that, but as long I could express myself in a way that had sound, I was happy.

~Tove Styrke

I've been collaborating a lot, because I like working that way. It's fun and keeps you moving forward.

~Tove Styrke

You get a lot of fame, but haven't created anything musically.

~Tove Styrke

I really do know what I want with my life. I think that keeps me from making bad decisions and spending time doing stuff I don't enjoy.

~Tove Styrke

I hadn't known anything else, other than being an artist, and I needed to be a person for a while, really get to know myself without that whole thing [of selling music] surrounding me.

~Tove Styrke

I took some time away from the music industry. I've been doing this since I was 16 and needed some time to get to know myself as a grown-up.

~Tove Styrke

The challenge is to translate the song into something that works on the stage. It's pop music, but I try to keep it as loose as possible.

~Tove Styrke

I have quite a broad taste in music.
