Affirmative action was designed to keep women and minorities in competition with each other to distract us while white dudes inject AIDS into our chicken nuggets.

~Tracy Morgan

My sense of humor is a turkey, and I pull it out of the oven and baste it in reality.

~Tracy Morgan

And when I was angry, when I was younger, I was in a cocoon. Now I'm a beautiful, black butterfly.

~Tracy Morgan

Bad news travels at the speed of light; good news travels like molasses.

~Tracy Morgan

I have snakes, three sharks, moray eels, piranhas, five scorpions and a bird spider. All of them are predators. They are dangerous but it's cool to have strong and powerful pets.

~Tracy Morgan

I see knowledge of self. I know who I am. When I look in the mirror, I see me.

~Tracy Morgan

Don't follow in my footsteps. Be original, and create your own path. Be a trailblazer! Do you! Be better than me. Do you! Be happy and have joy in your life.

~Tracy Morgan

I love my mother. My mother made sure, her stubbornness - she made sure we was going to eat. She made sure we had Christmases. That was my mother. My father wasn't there for that.

~Tracy Morgan

My father said: "If you want to catch your girl cheating, you knock on the front door and run to the back, because he's coming out the back."

~Tracy Morgan

The truth is if I had a gay son, I would love him just as much as if he was straight! I might have to try to love even more because I know of the difficulty that he would have in society.

~Tracy Morgan

I love this cornbread so much, I wanna take it behind a middle school and get it pregnant.

~Tracy Morgan

In my heart, I really don't care who you love, same sex or not; as long as you have the ability to love, that's the important thing here.

~Tracy Morgan

Eddie [Murphy] is an icon. He's one of the reason why I started doing comedy in the beginning. He opened a lot of doors for black people.

~Tracy Morgan

Live every week like it's shark week.

~Tracy Morgan

I've got to show life as I see it.

Michael's the ultimate entertainer. After Michael Jackson, it's Elvis Presley, Frank Sinatra, and Bruce Lee.

~Tracy Morgan

Stand-up don't get no respect - it's the hardest thing to do in show business. You don't have no band and there's no music.

~Tracy Morgan

I just see myself as a short, dumpy guy with bad feet, and I'm passionate.

~Tracy Morgan

When a child is born, it's born with a heart of gold, but the way of this world can turn that heart cold. I'm still a good person, and I thank God for that - He's working with me on it.

~Tracy Morgan

Being funny wasn't a career choice growing up, it was my way out of situations; a way to survive another day.

~Tracy Morgan

I just want to have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, so that when I'm long gone my great-great-grandchildren can walk up to it and say, "That's my ancestor." That will be my legacy.

~Tracy Morgan

My life growing up was a twisted Bronx version of The Color Purple. It had a much different soundtrack and no trees, but that desperation was the same.

~Tracy Morgan

I don't have a hateful bone in my body. I don't believe anyone should be bullied or made to feel bad about who they are.

~Tracy Morgan

You will be surprised but I do a lot of studying and I watch National Geographic.
