People look at you, and they've got just the perfect little box for you, the perfect category. Call you a redneck. Call you a hillbilly. Like those were insults.

~Travis Tritt

Bluegrass is really a big part of my background.

~Travis Tritt

It's a great day to be alive. I know the sun's still shining when I close my eyes.

~Travis Tritt

It's the same old story you've heard a thousand times. Somebody's trust gets broken. Somebody's left behind.

~Travis Tritt

The biggest cause of divorce is marriage.

~Travis Tritt

Please tell me you will remember, no matter how much I do wrong that I had the best of intentions all along.

~Travis Tritt

If you're gonna sing, sing loud.

~Travis Tritt

I've been writing on my own. It's like Roger Miller used to say, every now and then, like a dog having puppies, you have to crawl under the house and do it yourself.

~Travis Tritt

When they talk about music getting in your blood, I understand exactly what they're talking about, because that is me.

~Travis Tritt

I'm a member of a country club, country music is what I love.

~Travis Tritt

I simply find that as a songwriter, my goal is to try to move people. And I feel that before I can move other people, I have to genuinely be able to move myself.

~Travis Tritt

Just because I'm country music don't mean I don't have a little bit a' soul down in there somewhere.

~Travis Tritt

I need one good honky tonk angel to turn my life around.

~Travis Tritt

Here's a quarter, call someone who cares.

~Travis Tritt

You left me for a dream you had to follow, but I thought goodbye wouldn't last that long.

~Travis Tritt

I've been very fortunate to have had the opportunities to have the career I've had.

~Travis Tritt

A woman warm and willing is what I'm looking for, cause the whiskey ain't working anymore.

~Travis Tritt

I know what it takes to put a record together, so I'm not looking for people to come in and shape it.
