I don't mind snakes. Growing up in South Africa there were a couple a snakes around... and I'm not talking just about the government!

~Trevor Rabin

I'll always do the guitar parts since it's my main instrument.

~Trevor Rabin

All of the directors I've worked with I've gotten along with very well.

~Trevor Rabin

Unless the guitar works as a color, then I don't use it, so I haven't been playing guitar too much lately.

~Trevor Rabin

One of the things I try to be very careful of is not taking a movie when I know I have no inspiration left.

~Trevor Rabin

It's an important thing to have a relationship with the director, and have it be a positive one.

~Trevor Rabin

I really love writing themes and melody.

~Trevor Rabin

Writing a simple melody can take weeks to get it right where I want it, but I do quite enjoy it.

~Trevor Rabin

You know, usually with movies there are periods, dark areas, where I might not be getting what I wanted out of a theme. I'll have to go over and over it again.

~Trevor Rabin

While I'm quite happy and love doing the atmospheric and quirky stuff, the melodic stuff, I've done quite a lot of. It's also another reason why I try not to do two or three at the same time.

~Trevor Rabin

Well, unbeknownst to everybody, I did a movie when I was 19.

~Trevor Rabin

I love being in a band. I love that collaborative spirit, although some would suggest that I don't get involved in the collaborative spirit, but it's not true.
