The president already has a Nobel Prize for peace. I think he's shooting for one in fiction.

~Trey Gowdy

While people are free to draw different conclusions from the facts, there should be no debate over whether the American public is entitled to have all of the facts.

~Trey Gowdy

No law can give Congress a backbone if it refuses to stand off as the coequal branch the Constitution made it.

~Trey Gowdy

Facts are neither Republican nor Democrat.

~Trey Gowdy

If a president can change some laws, can he change ALL laws? Can he change election laws? Can he change discrimination laws? Are there any laws, under your theory, that he actually HAS to enforce?

~Trey Gowdy

She was fabulously wrong when she said it the first time, and stunningly arrogant in her refusal to express any regret for lying to our fellow citizens.

~Trey Gowdy

It always matters, whether or not you can trust your government.

~Trey Gowdy

It's really beneath the office of a member of Congress to say something that outrageous. The fact that she was once the Speaker is mind-numbing, honestly... mind-numbingly stupid.

~Trey Gowdy

The notion that the First Amendment has no limitations whatsoever is balderdash.

~Trey Gowdy

These last few years we've seen an unacceptable abuse of power, having a president whose priority is expanding his own power.

~Trey Gowdy

If you can turn off certain categories of law, do you not also have the power to turn off all categories of law?

~Trey Gowdy

I taught the Constitution for ten years, I believe in the Constitution.

~Trey Gowdy

I'm unelectable in the District of Columbia.

~Trey Gowdy

You may be less likely to pick on someone if you don't know what's in their briefcase or purse.

~Trey Gowdy

My daughter took Latin for three years; she still can't speak it.

~Trey Gowdy

I can tell you this. It is not going to be evenly constituted and when she was Speaker Pelosi, she certainly showed no interests in having an equal number of Republicans and Democrats.

~Trey Gowdy

There's no way we can get to the bottom of Benghazi without David Petraeus.

~Trey Gowdy

What do we do with a president who can basically change what Congress passed by attaching a letter saying I don't agree with this part or that part?

~Trey Gowdy

I'm going to help the committee regardless of any position I have. I will volunteer to be a summer intern.

~Trey Gowdy

Your memo is trumping a Congressional statute. You don't have the discretion on whether to follow the law or not.

~Trey Gowdy

When you go into public service, you understand you're trading something. You want to feel good about what you do, but you're not going to make what people in private sector make.

~Trey Gowdy

I don't like bonuses for public services employees who do great jobs, like prosecutors or judges.

~Trey Gowdy

The same Constitution that allows her the right, if she wants to, to sit there and say nothing, allows these groups the right to petition their government for redress.

~Trey Gowdy

What is our recourse, Mr. Speaker? What is our remedy?

~Trey Gowdy
