~Trip Hawkins

[The PlayStation 2 is a] historic, a mass-market appliance that fundamentally changes society in the way the printing press did.

~Trip Hawkins

I'm not saying that more performance wouldn't be better - all these technologies are going to get better - that's the difference between first generation and second generation.

~Trip Hawkins

But any big change is more likely to result if there is a disruptive event such as new technologies or platforms that have a surprising effect on market share.

~Trip Hawkins

None of our competitors have ever made two systems that run the same software.

~Trip Hawkins

You have to be doing something very different from what everybody else is doing, hopefully different from what's ever been done before - something that nobody's thought of yet.

~Trip Hawkins

If you always wanted to wait for something better, you'd never buy anything, right?

~Trip Hawkins

Polygons are fashionable at the moment - particularly in the arcades.

~Trip Hawkins

I have a number of famous quotes, and one of them is, if you get knocked down, get back up again. I don't really feel like I want to let anything ultimately defeat me.

~Trip Hawkins

But we also think that we've got more quite alot more support than any new format has ever had.

~Trip Hawkins

We'll look at the japanese launch as a model and aspire to have things go as well as they did over there.
