

Trisha Yearwood Quotes

Mom, Song, People, Kitchen, Trying, Character, Cooking, Years, Dad, Writing, Ingredients, Bowls, Plans, Energy, Passion, Make Out, Recipes, Want, Cookies,

Focus

What's meant to be will always find a way.

~Trisha Yearwood

When you're sick, nobody takes care of you like your mom.

~Trisha Yearwood

There's an energy about Nashville that I love and I miss. And it's so awesome right now. It has a new energy that's so cool.

~Trisha Yearwood

We sat together as a family for dinner at night. And my mother had a job. My dad had a job. But there was always a meal on the table at 6:00, you know.

~Trisha Yearwood

Music is my No. 1 passion. If you made me choose between music and food, it's definitely music.

~Trisha Yearwood

My upbringing did not create a healthy affection for confrontation. I'd love it if everyone always got along, and nothing ever got tense.

~Trisha Yearwood

I love potatoes - they're my favorite food.

~Trisha Yearwood

It's cool when your husband starts to sing some old Merle Haggard song and I can pop in with a harmony and it doesn't sound too bad.

~Trisha Yearwood

I don't spend time wondering what might be next; I just focus on trying to savor every day.

~Trisha Yearwood

Nobody who cooks does it with full hair and makeup in front of a TV camera.

~Trisha Yearwood

I absolutely refused to make out with the gorgeous male model.

~Trisha Yearwood

You start out playing in kitchens, and you end up playing in kitchens.

~Trisha Yearwood

I'm the inspiration for picking it up off the floor after it fell off the stool and figuring out a way to make it still work.

~Trisha Yearwood

I'm 47, You learn life is short and it's not worth doing something if you don't enjoy it.

~Trisha Yearwood

I've never been the girl that's had the five-year plan, the 10-year plan and I'm still not.

~Trisha Yearwood

When people compliment my cooking, it's like somebody telling me that they like my music. And it's great to be known for something else.

~Trisha Yearwood

When I made my first album, there was no indication that anybody other than my parents were going to buy it.

~Trisha Yearwood

I don't need to be 19 years old or starve myself for some weight or turn men's heads down that road. And thank God I finally know that.

~Trisha Yearwood

It's funny, the whole cooking thing came out of just a random thought of writing a cookbook with my mom and my sister for fun.

~Trisha Yearwood

I'm like it's - it's like taking out whatever you have in your fridge and putting it in a bowl and eating it.

~Trisha Yearwood

Standing behind a kitchen counter telling people about what ingredients to put in a pot didn't feel right.

~Trisha Yearwood

I don't interest myself that much.

~Trisha Yearwood

She's got her God and she's got good wine, Aretha Franklin, and Patsy Cline.

~Trisha Yearwood

I like a gooey cookie.

~Trisha Yearwood

I was an A student and I liked creative writing.

~Trisha Yearwood

For me, cooking is very connected to my family and friends.

~Trisha Yearwood

I almost never make stuff out of cookbooks because they're either too complicated or there's an ingredient in there that I can't find.

~Trisha Yearwood

People who truly love to sing have to do it all the time.

~Trisha Yearwood

Songs are like movies to me, and so you put yourself in the movie. You become a character in the movie.

~Trisha Yearwood

Related Links:

- Mom Quotes
- Song Quotes
- People Quotes
- Kitchen Quotes
- Trying Quotes
- Character Quotes
- Cooking Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Dad Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Ingredients Quotes
- Bowls Quotes
- Plans Quotes
- Energy Quotes
- Passion Quotes
- Make Out Quotes
- Recipes Quotes
- Want Quotes
- Cookies Quotes
- Focus Quotes