At the end of the program, I tried to talk to the kids a little bit about life skills.

~Troy Vincent

Professional sports are something they can't control.

~Troy Vincent

These kids are the future of the National Football League. They're the next generation that will be playing high school football, NCAA football, and some even to the pros.

~Troy Vincent

Coaches aren't concentrating enough of the technical part of this game and that could lead to injuries.

~Troy Vincent

Injuries are part of the game, but sometimes we can avoid them by just practicing our techniques.

~Troy Vincent

Technique is everything and we play a contact sport.

~Troy Vincent

I encourage everyone out there to get involved.

~Troy Vincent

The most important thing we stressed is that we want those kids to be productive citizens.

~Troy Vincent

Together we knew that we could have success.

~Troy Vincent

Domestic violence was a way of life in my home growing up, my brother and I watched helplessly numerous times as my mother was beaten and knocked unconscious while we dialed 911.

~Troy Vincent

As you get older, youre always maturing, youre always learning something new about yourself.

~Troy Vincent

We have our own reasons for what's motivating us right now.

~Troy Vincent

It is a violent sport that we choose as men, and that we as parents allow our children to play.

~Troy Vincent

Taking part in these types of programs is crucial to our youth and crucial to the future of this game.

~Troy Vincent

Life favors those who are prepared

~Troy Vincent

We did it together. Not one individual carried this team.

~Troy Vincent

Obviously we will talk about doing everything we can to make our sport as safe as possible.
