The sixties were a time when ordinary people could do extraordinary things . . . !

~Twiggy

At sixteen, I was a funny, skinny little thing, all eyelashes and legs. And then, suddenly people told me it was gorgeous. I thought they had gone mad.

~Twiggy

There's no need to dress like everyone else. It's much more fun to create your own look.

~Twiggy

I've always loved life, and I've never known what's ahead. I love not knowing what might be round the corner. I love serendipity.

~Twiggy

Confusion is the best form of communication. It's left to be unexplained.

~Twiggy

I want to continue to try and break the barrier between male and female.

~Twiggy

Always be natural. Putting on airs will make a giggle out of you. Be yourself and if you don't know something say so.

~Twiggy

I used to be a thing; I'm a person now.

~Twiggy

Being a grown-up woman doesn't mean you can't look beautiful, individual and different.

~Twiggy

You can't be a clothes hanger for your entire life.

~Twiggy

Fashion should be stylish and fun.

~Twiggy

Ageing doesn't mean giving up on style and individuality; it doesn't mean abandoning fashion and living in comfy slippers and flannel knickers.

~Twiggy

I don't understand people getting depressed about getting older. There is nothing you can do about it, so you might as well embrace it.

~Twiggy

Tailored jackets with jeans is a great look for all ages. Dress up with a heel and pretty shirt, or just wear a smart T-shirt under the jacket.

~Twiggy

I was very, very underdeveloped for my age, I hated what I looked like, so I thought everyone had gone stark raving mad.

~Twiggy

It is no longer acceptable to ignore the suffering, and designers must take responsibility for the way that their fur is produced.

~Twiggy

I'm just mad for San Francisco. It is like London and Paris stacked on top of each other.

~Twiggy

If you just say nothing, there is no way they can make you talk.

~Twiggy

[On her thinness:] It's not what you'd call a figure, is it?

~Twiggy

Can you imagine wot it was like. All the girls gettin' luvly figgers and me stayin' flat as a pancake? It was no fun, I tell you.

~Twiggy

I ate like a horse when I was younger, and not very sensibly, though no one ever believes that.

~Twiggy

The trick is to find the style that is right for you. When it comes to trying new clothes, my advice is not to take it too seriously - it's all about having fun.

~Twiggy

I think everyone should sing - it's so good for you, as it makes you breathe deeply, and it's good for you emotionally, too. It's a brilliant release way of lifting the spirits.

~Twiggy

Back in the '60s, there was a car sticker that read, 'Forget Oxfam, Feed Twiggy,' but I ate like a horse.

~Twiggy

My weakness is chocolate - especially butterscotch and nut varieties.

~Twiggy

I am very sad that some designers are still using real fur when the fake alternatives are so effective and so easily obtainable.

~Twiggy

It's hard to see how anyone can fail to care about innocent children and animals being blown up by landmines.

~Twiggy

I like to get on with people. I don't go around being nasty, but if someone crosses me, I can be horrible back.

~Twiggy

I love exercise but I find it boring doing the same thing all the time, so I fluctuate between going to the gym, doing Pilates and taking dance lessons.

~Twiggy

I eat healthily because that's the way I prefer to eat, and I'm sure it helps keep the weight off.

~Twiggy

I didn't really know about Marilyn Manson - it's not my sort of music, not exactly the sort of thing I would curl up and listen to!

~Twiggy

For special occasions, I love pretty dresses - but nothing too frou-frou!

~Twiggy

You won't often find me in a pair of killer heels: my heel height doesn't rise above two and a half inches, as I would just fall over!

~Twiggy

Fluted sleeves or any sleeve that flares out before coming in again at the wrist are very feminine and a great way to distract from the dreaded 'bingo wings.'

~Twiggy

I love flat shoes, more so than heels. One of my obsessions is men's co-respondent lace-ups.
