It's hard to deny talent. If you're good, you're good.

~Tyler Hilton

I was a good student. My mom is a teacher, and her side of the family is all teachers. She put a big emphasis on getting good grades.

~Tyler Hilton

My family was all musicians. We jam all the time.

~Tyler Hilton

Kids think books are cool, especially when they see that people they think books are cool are reading.

~Tyler Hilton

My world on the road always ends up feeling really small which is ironic because that's when I'm seeing the most places and meeting the most people!

~Tyler Hilton

Education is one of the most important tools that you can give somebody.

~Tyler Hilton

It's like a dream sometimes, a song just pops into your head and you can't tell if it's something you heard or it's new and you got to write it down.

~Tyler Hilton

I've been really lucky to have a lot of cool people and to be around a lot of cool celebrities that I've got to learn from.

~Tyler Hilton

Getting on stage, for me, was a huge thing when I first started. And back in high school, everyone was in rock bands and I was a singer/songwriter. It just seems kind of lame.

~Tyler Hilton

I never was strutting through the hallways like, "Yeah, I'm a singer/songwriter." That's never a cool thing to do - to be the brooding guy.

~Tyler Hilton

I can't figure out why fans keep coming, maybe it's because they dig the songs.

~Tyler Hilton

I don't know how many of us get to go to the next level, and I don't know how many people on my level get to go to the next level after that. I think it is the songs that can take you there.

~Tyler Hilton

I went from living with my parents, to being signed out of high school. I have never, not had a boss, or someone else responsible for me. It is really cool as an artist to have that freedom.

~Tyler Hilton

I think one of the reasons that I love the fans that have stuck around, because I really enjoy writing different kinds of songs. I don't know if I write them well or not, but I can write them.

~Tyler Hilton

There is also something exciting about the risk. Somewhere in me is a sadist that likes pain, I guess.

~Tyler Hilton

Music comes out of me most naturally and would be the hardest to give up forever.
