Every human being, of whatever origin, of whatever station, deserves respect. We must each respect others even as we respect ourselves.

~U Thant

The war we have to wage today has only one goal, and that is to make the world safe for diversity.

~U Thant

Wars begin in the minds of men, and in those minds, love and compassion would have built the defenses of peace.

~U Thant

The world will not Change and find peace if there is not a new education.

~U Thant

Governments, systems, ideologies come and go, but it is humanity which remains.

~U Thant

As a Buddhist, I was trained to be tolerant of everything except intolerance

~U Thant

Respect for the truth comes close to being the basis for all morality.

~U Thant

World federalists hold before us the vision of a unified mankind living in peace under a just world order... The heart of their program-a world under law- is realistic and attainable.

~U Thant

I don't like to be disturbed at home; I tell the cable office not to call me before 6:30 AM, unless there's a war.

~U Thant

In modern war there is no such thing as victor and vanquished... There is only a loser, and the loser is mankind.

~U Thant

Understanding, love and tolerance are the highest forms of interest on our small and interdependent planet.

~U Thant

The single most important impediment to global institutions is the concept of "my country, right or wrong".

~U Thant

I am afraid if the present trend in Vietnam continues that direct confrontation, first of all between Washington and Peking, is inevitable.
