A portrait, to be a work of art, neither must nor may resemble the sitter... one must paint its atmosphere.

~Umberto Boccioni

There is neither painting, nor sculpture, nor music, nor poetry. The only truth is creation.

~Umberto Boccioni

We must now learn to draw inspiration from the tangible miracles that surround us.

~Umberto Boccioni

A time will come when the eye of man will perceive colors as feelings within itself.

~Umberto Boccioni

These days I am obsessed by sculpture! I believe I have glimpsed a complete renovation of that mummified art.

~Umberto Boccioni

The time has passed for our sensations in painting to be whispered. We wish them in the future to sing and re-echo upon our canvasses in deafening and triumphant flourishes.

~Umberto Boccioni

All art critics are useless or harmful.

~Umberto Boccioni

To paint a human figure you must not paint it; you must render the whole of its surrounding atmosphere.

~Umberto Boccioni
