Remember, color is not just color, but mood, temperature and structure.

~Van Day Truex

In design, Mother Nature is our best teacher.

~Van Day Truex

Training the eye is the most important way to gain an appreciation and understanding of good design in business management.

~Van Day Truex

Interiors speak! Rooms emphasize whether one exists or lives, and there is a great difference between the two!

~Van Day Truex

The easiest approach to any strong color is to use a lot of it, thus unifying a room. However, beware of too many strong colors unless you happen to like living on a battlefield.

~Van Day Truex

Too many bright colors make for congestion. Too many bright colors need, above all, contrast in value, to eliminate vibration.

~Van Day Truex

There is nothing more trite than a period room imposed on a contemporary setting.

~Van Day Truex

Better rooms better furniture, better objects d'art can only be created for a society interested in living - not existing.

~Van Day Truex

Good design is forever.

~Van Day Truex

I wonder if any element of interior design is more personal than color? Nothing can more quickly reveal aspect of personality and character than the choice - or absence - of color.

~Van Day Truex

Go to the source for ideas, go to the Metropolitan Museum, find your inspiration in nature, go to the Museum of Natural History, but never rely on something that someone else has done.

~Van Day Truex

Rich colors are typical of a rich nature.

~Van Day Truex

Control, edit and distill.
