A leader is admired, a boss is feared.

~Vicente del Bosque

You watch the game, you don't see Busquets. You watch Busquets, you see the whole game.

~Vicente del Bosque

Leadership must be likeable, affable, cordial, and above all emotional. The fashion of authoritarian leadership is gone. Football is about life. You can't be angry all day.

~Vicente del Bosque

Football has an important role to play in society. Players should have a sense of social responsibility, have a moral dimension to them which shows up in good conduct.

~Vicente del Bosque

Technically he is perfect and he plays so naturally, almost without effort. It's like when Roger Federer plays tennis, he barely sweats.

~Vicente del Bosque

I didn't really want to be the coach who wins but the coach who educates.

~Vicente del Bosque

We are in a world that is quite extremist and extremism makes more noise. Normality does not sell.

~Vicente del Bosque

Sometimes people say that coach is a winner, but everyone wants to win. You must know how to behave in victory and in defeat, to look after what is our sport, football.

~Vicente del Bosque

We must look after football and to do what it is necessary to bring to the game the best ethical values and personal behaviour.

~Vicente del Bosque

Spain used to be very individualistic in its sporting activities. Now we are showing we are pretty good in teams - that is an improvement.

~Vicente del Bosque

Messi or Ronaldo? I prefer Messi because he is more of a street player.

~Vicente del Bosque

If I were a player, I would like to be like Busquets.

~Vicente del Bosque

I think it is important to help our country's image outside of Spain.
