Theatre demands different muscles and different aspects of one's personality.

~Victor Garber

I believe that acting in any medium is the same thing, it's discovering the truth in where you are.

~Victor Garber

It's disgusting that a Broadway show can't try out anymore, that no matter where they are in the world, there is this massive dialogue going on between people damning or praising it.

~Victor Garber

The most sinister aspect of Jack is his detachment, his ability to distance himself from his feelings.

~Victor Garber

I find that everything I do is demanding, like Jack Bristow is a complicated man and I do a lot of explaining in the show, it takes a lot of energy and concentration.

~Victor Garber

Thank goodness I started getting movie roles and then television shows came along. So I was very fortunate to be able to do all three and I like all of them.

~Victor Garber

If you were to come to the set of Alias, you'd know how silly we all are. And I mean, silly.

~Victor Garber

We, some cast members and I, even went on a weekend trip together and spent the weekend at an inn, because we enjoy each other's company so much, and it was so cool.

~Victor Garber

I like the fact that Jack is always wearing a tie except when he's on a mission. I do like it when I get out there and dress up, or dress down, a little bit.

~Victor Garber

I've been amazed that it's so popular with people. But it's been fantastic. People are very excited when I walk into a place and they recognize me from the series.

~Victor Garber

That's why, when Alias came along, I knew I'd be OK if the show was on for five or six years because the writing was so good and the creative team was so strong.

~Victor Garber

In our show you have to pay attention and know what happened before. I think it's very intelligent entertainment. It makes demands of viewers that a lot of shows don't.

~Victor Garber

The hardest thing for me is not to keep laughing. Jennifer particularly is like a clown.

~Victor Garber

I have no interest in directing. I've no talent for it.

~Victor Garber

I think from a very young age I always have this desire to perform.

~Victor Garber

And when I go to see plays, I marvel at how people can do that. I've done it all my life, but I still find it mystical.

~Victor Garber

I had done some TV movies that were great experiences but, no, I wasn't looking to do a series.

~Victor Garber

Each person shows something different, in every challenge that they come across.

~Victor Garber

I don't collect anything. I collect people, I think. I'm very social and I like seeing a lot of people.

~Victor Garber

When I was a kid, I didn't collect stamps, or weird toys, or anything. I don't even have music - I don't even have a CD collection. So that's not really my thing.

~Victor Garber

What I realized was how difficult an hour show is and how miserable you can be if you're not happy doing it.

~Victor Garber

Then I did one fight scene, and they said it looked good. Because I did it well enough, they've given me more.

~Victor Garber

When I first read the script a few years ago I thought it was one of the best written scripts I had ever read.

~Victor Garber

The only set thing I do is that I really, really memorize the lines. I've gotta be so comfortable with the words.

~Victor Garber

The joy is when you work with great actors, it just comes to life in a way that you never even imagined.

~Victor Garber

Growing up I was involved in children's theater, so I was definitely on the path to be an actor and a singer.

~Victor Garber

I have no skills. The only thing I could possibly do is teach.

~Victor Garber

You can only do so much theatre.

~Victor Garber

The stage is where I feel most comfortable, and I miss it all the time.

~Victor Garber

My mother couldn't have been happier when I said I was moving to New York.

~Victor Garber

Sometimes, his methods and his motives are questionable and even his morals are questionable in the way he does things. But I think his intention is always to protect his daughter.

~Victor Garber

I'm very serious about acting.

~Victor Garber

Being on a television series is sort of life-altering on every level.
