We tried our best to buy Dhoni during IPL 1 but unfortunately failed to do so.

~Vijay Mallya

I run my own world, because I very firmly believe that my destiny, my future, is in my hands, and I don't want to blame anybody else for the path that I take.

~Vijay Mallya

I spend my own money, not other people's money.

~Vijay Mallya

If you work for a team, you have a different view, if you own a team you have a radically different view.

~Vijay Mallya

I live life what I consider to be normal.

~Vijay Mallya

It's not quite right to be sitting outside India and to be judging what is happening in India.

~Vijay Mallya

I do not believe in hypocrisy.

~Vijay Mallya

I live the way I want to live, and I don't comment on the way that other people live.

~Vijay Mallya

Rather than spend millions getting film stars, I am quite happy to be brand ambassador myself.

~Vijay Mallya

One of India's biggest advantages is our young demographic and that we have a youthful population that is indeed our future.

~Vijay Mallya

I don't like to leave anything unfinished on my desk before I travel.

~Vijay Mallya

I think it is better when people with their own businesses and means of income join politics as there is some degree of honesty and integrity.

~Vijay Mallya

I work hard and I play hard, too. There is nothing wrong with that.

~Vijay Mallya

We have broken the shackles of conservative socialism. The growing middle classes want the kind of standard of living you enjoy in the West. So what I'm selling is a lifestyle.

~Vijay Mallya

If you want India to lower tariffs and facilitate more free trade, then I think Indian producers also have a right to enter the European market.

~Vijay Mallya
