And when I was a kid being an actor was not cool. I'm thirty now and when I was a kid in the 80s that wasn't a cool thing to be.

~Vincent Kartheiser

Storytelling is the important thing.

~Vincent Kartheiser

I've never been monogamous. It might happen, but it never has yet. I don't understand women, I'm off that kick.

~Vincent Kartheiser

I don't have a lot of money. I get some from Mad Men. But I don't think I'm rich.

~Vincent Kartheiser

I was a nut for Dostoevsky. You can tell a lot from what people read between those ages. My brother was a Steinbeck freak and now he lives in a little village in New Hampshire and he's a baker.

~Vincent Kartheiser

I learned a lot about acting from the people I worked with.

~Vincent Kartheiser

I'm just an actor. Just a stupid actor.

~Vincent Kartheiser

I don't really study television or how things do or don't change. So I don't know anything about that. I'm just a stupid actor.

~Vincent Kartheiser

You can't compare any job or any friendship or anything to another. I think if you do, it's kind of a recipe for disaster.

~Vincent Kartheiser

It's always nice to know people are watching and having their own ideas about things and it's nice when your audience starts trying to guess what's going to happen, it means they're really interested.

~Vincent Kartheiser

I think television is always changing. It's always shifting.

~Vincent Kartheiser

The official bio is the wrongest thing you've ever seen in your entire life.

~Vincent Kartheiser

Education is the number one priority.

~Vincent Kartheiser

Being an actor is like winning the lottery. It's not really about your talent, it's right time, right place, right face.

~Vincent Kartheiser

I was, aged nine, the go-to kid in Minneapolis for a commercial voiceover.
