In New York alone, there was an average of more than 300 campus fires per year between 1997 and 2000, with roughly 160 of them annually in dormitories.

~Vito Fossella

Hamas is responsible for countless homicide bombings that have killed hundreds of Israeli citizens. They have waged a terror war with the sole intent of murdering innocent people.

~Vito Fossella

The Staten Island Ferry remains a potential terrorist target.

~Vito Fossella

Every single day, we have hundreds, if not thousands of police officers protecting the lives of not just New Yorkers, but the millions who come to New York City to work and to vacation.

~Vito Fossella

Lebanon can choose to be either a partner in ridding the scourge of terrorism or another obstacle that cowers to the most radical elements of society.

~Vito Fossella

Vetting and verifying information is one thing. Having our government sending out conflicting messages to the American people when conflict can be avoided is another.

~Vito Fossella

Those whose lives were lost on September 11 will remain in our thoughts and prayers forever.

~Vito Fossella

One of the essential elements of government responsibility is to communicate effectively to the American people, especially in time of a potential terrorist attack or a natural disaster.

~Vito Fossella

I won't tolerate lying.

~Vito Fossella

I think the Bush tax cuts should be made permanent.

~Vito Fossella

If you're a retail investor, you have set aside some of your hard-earned money for investment or to create a nest egg, for your kids or family.

~Vito Fossella

I represent Staten Island and Brooklyn, and not just that the financial services industry is important to the U.S., but is disproportionately important to New York City.

~Vito Fossella

In the annals of history, few men have left a more positive imprint on the world than Pope John Paul II.

~Vito Fossella

And finally, let me just say it is a fact that not every city can dedicate resources to terrorism.

~Vito Fossella

The issue for me is American competitiveness, and how do we best create a climate here that allows international capital to come to these shores to create jobs.
