We can either build a Star Trek future, in which our civilization rises to new heights, or descend into a Mad Max world. It is up to us.

~Vivek Wadhwa

Doing the right thing doesn't always bring success. But compromising ethics almost always leads to failure.

~Vivek Wadhwa

The truth is that entrepreneurship is more like a roller coaster ride than a cruise.

~Vivek Wadhwa

A key to achieving success is to assemble a strong and stable management team.

~Vivek Wadhwa

Innovation is all about people. Innovation thrives when the population is diverse, accepting and willing to cooperate.

~Vivek Wadhwa

A key ingredient in innovation is the ability to challenge authority and break rules.

~Vivek Wadhwa

You need to be able to SHARE IDEAS, INSPIRE and MOTIVATE

~Vivek Wadhwa

What the tech industry often forgets is that with age comes wisdom. Older workers are usually better at following direction, mentoring, and leading.

~Vivek Wadhwa

No matter how well things are going, failure and disaster are just around the corner. So celebrate the good, but be ready for the bad.

~Vivek Wadhwa

Most successful entrepreneurs share their knowledge as a way of giving back. They do not demand compensation. Those who do are usually trying to take advantage of you.

~Vivek Wadhwa

The goal should be to build a sustainable lifestyle business that does good for employees and customers - and that steadily builds wealth.

~Vivek Wadhwa

We live in the most amazing period in human history. We can have unlimited energy, unlimited food, provide education for everyone, clean water, all the things that have held mankind back.

~Vivek Wadhwa

The mentor-mentee relationship is ideally like that of the guru and disciple: motivated by the desire of the guru to impart knowledge to the disciple.

~Vivek Wadhwa

Most business schools are geared toward churning out investment bankers and management consultants.

~Vivek Wadhwa

We must first get over the myth that older workers can't innovate.

~Vivek Wadhwa

Over the last 10 years, India's perception has gone from being a beggar country to an economic superpower.
