I did have an offer to direct one of the Alien movies but I wasn't too excited about all the effects work.

~Walter Hill

I've always wanted to do a boxing movie.

~Walter Hill

Naturally we need black men to give this movie serious credibility.

~Walter Hill

Some say Hollywood movies that are made about boxing are just metaphors for other things, I think I've made one that's actually about boxing and not a metaphor.

~Walter Hill

I wouldn't not want to be a director and write as I wouldn't not to want to be a writer and direct movies.

~Walter Hill

Well, I'm about to do another western, a pilot for HBO this fall.

~Walter Hill

You as an audience can look at these things as films, but I remember them as social experiences.

~Walter Hill

I mean no film is beyond criticism, but I think we've made a very modest movie.

~Walter Hill

I get a great high from writing.

~Walter Hill

I don't much like looking back.

~Walter Hill

When people are still getting pleasure from something that you did 30 years ago, it makes you feel good. I always say it makes an old man happy.

~Walter Hill

Action movies to me are dramas with recognizable human beings that are in extraordinary situations.

~Walter Hill

I think the problem with the cinema currently is that so much of the money that goes movies that offer a certain kind of repetition.

~Walter Hill

I liked Batman because he was more grounded. I never liked Superman much or Captain Marvel or Shazam.

~Walter Hill

When you get into making movies, then the physical mundane reality of life must be presented. But in comics you can jack it up and work in shorthand.

~Walter Hill

The graphic novel form really interests me and I like the freedom that format offers.

~Walter Hill

I always loved comic books and I'm still a great fan of the graphic novel.
