The Moon and Mars were the two most likely candidates for life in the solar system; what exists beyond our solar system is mere guesswork.

~Walter Lang

Being made in the image of God, man was the crown of creation.

~Walter Lang

If we knew exactly what animal life was like before the fall into sin and knew what nature was like before the law of entropy invaded it, we would already be living in heaven.

~Walter Lang

With our knowledge of modern-day genetics, we realize that it was possible for God to place the potential for all people throughout history into the genes of Adam and Eve when He created them.

~Walter Lang

Scripture suggests that the elements in space were created for the benefit of earth, while evolution suggests that earth is an insignificant speck in vast space.

~Walter Lang

No writer of a portion of the Bible was perfect. It was the direct and miraculous operation of the Holy Spirit that what they wrote is without mistake.

~Walter Lang

This solution may not appeal to our human pride, but the problem is that our human pride in itself is sinful.

~Walter Lang

Sex is not sinful, but sin has perverted it.

~Walter Lang

Therefore, sins of sex are punished in this life to a greater degree than some other sins.

~Walter Lang

But, when Scripture makes a clear distinction between the act of creation and the process of preservation, we cannot accept the idea of a progressive creation process.

~Walter Lang

Time was God's first creation.

~Walter Lang

We agree that man was not created to survive in space.

~Walter Lang

Neither does man have gills for living in a water environment; yet it is not sinful to explore the depths of the oceans in search of food or other blessings.

~Walter Lang

God has stated in clear and concise language how He created the universe and we ought not to doubt His Word.

~Walter Lang

Essentially this promise before curse, this superiority of God's love in Christ, must come from the Bible.

~Walter Lang

Thus, races arose from an original coding which God pulled out as needed for adaptation to the environment.

~Walter Lang

In the beginning of the human race there was no genetic load which would cause undesirable traits such as appear in offspring of marriages between relatives today.

~Walter Lang

A creationist can embarrass an evolutionist by asking for a definition of species.

~Walter Lang

Any concept of one person being superior to another can lead to racism.

~Walter Lang

Time is not eternal but was created by God at the beginning.

~Walter Lang

Some people turn from God because they cannot understand how a good God can permit evil in the world.

~Walter Lang

Accordingly, one race is neither superior nor inferior to another.

~Walter Lang

Language expresses people's thinking and it was by a Word that God created the world and preserves it.

~Walter Lang

Science is defined in various ways, but today it is generally restricted to something which is experimental, which is repeatable, which can be predicted, and which is falsifiable.

~Walter Lang

There are also scientific problems with the concept that each of the creation days was a long period of time.

~Walter Lang

There is always a pressure to separate the Bible from science and to separate the Christian religion from things material.

~Walter Lang

In Christ the original image of God is restored, by faith in this world and by sight in the world to come.

~Walter Lang

Angels possess greater powers than do human beings.
