I didn't realize how many true Rockabilly fans there were here in America.

~Wanda Jackson

If I needed to record, I'd head to the coast or Nashville, one or the other.

~Wanda Jackson

I really appreciate people like Rosie coming out and saying I've inspired them.

~Wanda Jackson

Getting comments like that from even the young people at the shows who probably aren't singers, the girls who just tell me that I'm an inspiration to them, for one reason or another.

~Wanda Jackson

You could have a hit in California that no one had heard of in Oklahoma.

~Wanda Jackson

And it wasn't until '84 when I was first asked to come to Sweden and do an album and concert tour.

~Wanda Jackson

So, it's nice to know that you've inspired someone to do their life's work.

~Wanda Jackson

None of the other guys in the band really sang, so that's when I brought Roy Clark in.

~Wanda Jackson

I never kissed a bear, I've never kissed a goon, but I can shake a chicken in the middle of a room.

~Wanda Jackson

I'm still learnin'. I pick up something from every performer I watch.

~Wanda Jackson

But, we didn't have all the media that we do today.

~Wanda Jackson

On that show, I did country and some rock, too, whatever record I had out at the time, I'd sing that.

~Wanda Jackson

I have eighteen titles in the German language. I had a number one song in 1965.

~Wanda Jackson

It seems like the good things that have happened in my career are things that you don't try to plan and push, and make it happen, it just seems to happen.

~Wanda Jackson

Well, I didn't really have a plan. I just wanted a hit.

~Wanda Jackson

If something pops in my mind and it's easy, I write it.

~Wanda Jackson

He's a mean, mean man, but I love him all I can.

~Wanda Jackson

I learned so much about recording and about singing on records from Ken Nelson.

~Wanda Jackson

I loved Carl Perkins, Jerry lee Lewis... not only were they personal friends.
