We need citizens who are less concerned about what their government can do for them, and more concerned about what they can do for the nation.

~Warren G. Harding

I am not fit for this office and should never have been here.

~Warren G. Harding

Every student has the ability to be a successful learner.

~Warren G. Harding

Treat your friend as if he will one day be your enemy, and your enemy as if he will one day be your friend

~Warren G. Harding

Less government in business and more business in government.

~Warren G. Harding

America's present need is not heroics but healing; not nostrums but normalcy; not revolution but restoration.

~Warren G. Harding

It is my conviction that the fundamental trouble with the people of the United States is that they have gotten too far away from Almighty God.

~Warren G. Harding

I don't know much about Americanism, but it's a damn good word with which to carry an election.

~Warren G. Harding

I knew that this job would be too much for me.

~Warren G. Harding

The black man should seek to be, and he should be encouraged to be, the best possible black man and not the best possible imitation of a white man.

~Warren G. Harding

There's good in everybody. Boost. Don't knock.

~Warren G. Harding

Let the black man vote when he is fit to vote; prohibit the white man voting when he is unfit to vote.

~Warren G. Harding

Ambition is a commendable attribute, without which no man succeeds. Only inconsiderate ambition imperils.

~Warren G. Harding

I couldn't catch a ball or any of that stuff. I could do only what required brute stupidity.

~Warren G. Harding

The success of our popular government rests wholly upon the correct interpretation of the deliberate, intelligent, dependable popular will of America.

~Warren G. Harding

He liked to play chess and do intelligent things, and I was a serious drinker and nonthinker.

~Warren G. Harding

I expect it is very possible that I would make as good a President as a great many men who are talked of for that position.

~Warren G. Harding

I hurt with the insatiate longing, until I feel that there will never be any relief until I take a long, deep, wild draught on your lips.

~Warren G. Harding

Screwing is more enjoyable than drilling bolt holes !.

~Warren G. Harding

The president is the cuticle of the nail bed of America: one would think pushing back makes him stronger, yet it turns out the opposite is true.

~Warren G. Harding

I do recall that El Cap seemed to be in much better condition than I was.

~Warren G. Harding

Our most dangerous tendency is to expect too much of government, and at the same time do for it too little.

~Warren G. Harding

We must proceed with a full realization that no statute enacted by man can repeal the inexorable laws of nature.

~Warren G. Harding

I was spent up. I sure grabbed that girl of mine.

~Warren G. Harding

That's good. Go on, read some more.

~Warren G. Harding

Actually, we're just glorified flagpole sitters.

~Warren G. Harding

I continued with whatever 'qualified climbers' I could con into this rather unpromising venture.
