Unless we confront our history, unless we deal with it and move forward, not with recrimination, and move forward then we're always going to have the problems.

~Warren Mundine

The Labor roots are very strong. Paul Keating, made a comment several years ago about looking at that dragging yourself out of poverty, dragging yourself out of that situation.

~Warren Mundine

You always felt not happy about things, but you just couldn't put your finger on what was going.

~Warren Mundine

If you don't learn about each other, you do not understand each other, and you don't hide warts and all, both sides, then you're forever going to repeat history.

~Warren Mundine

A good government is one with a duty to help everyone, to maximise his or her potential: Indigenous people, people with disabilities, and our forgotten families. We will not leave anyone behind.

~Warren Mundine

Marists are workers, we do all the work and Jesuits just think about it.

~Warren Mundine

If I told my parents that I was going to do that [to be really counsel to a Prime Minister] when I was kid, they would probably put me in therapy.

~Warren Mundine

I can convert anyone.

~Warren Mundine

I'm a great reader of history. I love - I have been reading history since I was a kid, and learning the lessons globally of what happened with people.

~Warren Mundine

I'm a great lover of human beings.
