You won't change things unless you are prepared to fight, even if you don't win. But I do hate losing.

~Wendy Davis

The fight for the future of Texas is just beginning.

~Wendy Davis

The last thing Texas women need in their lives is Greg Abbott.

~Wendy Davis

Texas deserves a leader who understands that making education a priority creates good jobs for Texans and keeps Texas on top.

~Wendy Davis

Let's make sure that we are working for age-appropriate sex education in our school system.

~Wendy Davis

A tree fell on Greg Abbott - he sued and got millions.

~Wendy Davis

Texas has waited too long for a governor who knows that quid pro quo shouldn't be the status quo. It's time for a governor who believes that you don't have to buy a place in Texas' future.

~Wendy Davis

The best of Texas is yet to come.

~Wendy Davis

Harvard was the most intimidating experience. I felt so out of my league there.

~Wendy Davis

I would be lying if I told you that I hadn't had aspirations to run for a statewide office.

~Wendy Davis

Let's face it, Obama is not a hugely popular political figure in the state of Texas.

~Wendy Davis

I am running for my Senate district in 2014 and looking forward hopefully to earning the confidence of my community once again and being reelected for that seat.

~Wendy Davis

I've never worried about payback. People are hungry for leadership that's not afraid of political consequence.

~Wendy Davis

When you're serving at the local level, you have to build strong personal relationships to get things done.

~Wendy Davis

I care about life and I have a record of fighting for people above all else.
