

Wendy Starland Quotes

Artist, Song, Writing, People, Believe, Trends, Keys, Genre, Home, Rocks, Musical, Challenges, Guitar, Versatile, Competition, Jobs, Knowing, Singers, Fuel, White

Being a songwriter requires versatility while being an artist requires you to create a cohesive body of work. I truly enjoy both.

~Wendy Starland

Taking constructive criticism from others is required to get to the next level.

~Wendy Starland

Home is a place from which you can draw strength.

~Wendy Starland

The people who come out on top in music business have persistence. It is key! Fall down seven times; stand up eight. It takes a lot of courage and an unwavering belief in yourself and your abilities.

~Wendy Starland

My strength is in my ability to be versatile.

~Wendy Starland

No matter what you're going through, there is no temporary feeling or circumstance that can take away the core of who you are.

~Wendy Starland

I have certainly faced my fair share and will likely come across more. These experiences have been fuel for my music. Facing these challenges has forced me to recognize my own inner strength.

~Wendy Starland

Everyone faces challenges from the fierce competition as well as the manipulative crooks that are rampant throughout the music business.

~Wendy Starland

I have to say one of the lessons I learned is to always be prepared.

~Wendy Starland

A good song can be produced in several different genres.

~Wendy Starland

Music is cyclical and as an artist and songwriter, you need to be able to predict what trend is coming next.

~Wendy Starland

I would describe my style of songwriting as classic. I learned very early on and have stuck to the core principles of song structure regardless of which genre I'm writing in.

~Wendy Starland

I have been exposed to most musical genres and have learned how to tackle them effectively.

~Wendy Starland

Pressure is high and jobs are at stake. There is nothing wrong with having commercial music to pitch for those situations, as well as for ad campaigns.

~Wendy Starland

As a new artist you should ignore trends at all costs.

~Wendy Starland

Many artists who sign deals in the US and UK get the benefit of worldwide promotion and have a better shot at breaking globally.

~Wendy Starland

In Europe, radio stations are owned by a variety of different entities, so there is less uniformity on radio programming and more opportunity for artists to get radio play and break overseas.

~Wendy Starland

Knowing how to market yourself and your press materials is key.

~Wendy Starland

Related Links:

- Artist Quotes
- Song Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- People Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Trends Quotes
- Keys Quotes
- Genre Quotes
- Home Quotes
- Rocks Quotes
- Musical Quotes
- Challenges Quotes
- Guitar Quotes
- Versatile Quotes
- Competition Quotes
- Jobs Quotes
- Knowing Quotes
- Singers Quotes
- Fuel Quotes
- White Quotes