I love watching a good horse do what he's bred to do - I guess that's what I like the most about it. And I love to see good athletes do what they're bred to do.

~Wilford Brimley

I live on a ranch in Utah for now, but I'm gonna move. I've got another ranch to move to, but its location is a secret. When I get there, I'm gonna plow the road in behind me.

~Wilford Brimley

I'm not anybody's judge; I don't know what motivates people to do what they do. But I have a lot of admiration for anybody who can start with absolutely nothing and make a little something out of it.

~Wilford Brimley

Hopefully, generations after us will continue to protect, preserve, and look after this wonderful land.

~Wilford Brimley

I'm very proud of my heritage.

~Wilford Brimley

I rope steers in team roping events. There's a header and a heeler on a roping team, and I'm the heeler.

~Wilford Brimley

Well, we all are what we are, I guess you might say by an accident of birth.

~Wilford Brimley

I've got about $30,000 in chips, not near enough.

~Wilford Brimley

I've always played cards. I can't remember when there wasn't a gambling game going on somewhere, even if it was a craps game in a wheelbarrow on the backside of the racetrack.

~Wilford Brimley

I'm a widower with three sons and seven grandchildren. One of my sons is my partner on the ranch.

~Wilford Brimley

I didn't go to acting school, but I've been observing my fellow man for 66 years now, and I would think that's the best school there is.

~Wilford Brimley

I've already got my rent paid, and it's too late in my life for me to go around talking up stuff that I don't like or believe in.

~Wilford Brimley

My saddle horses are my friends. My dogs are my friends.

~Wilford Brimley

Everybody that's an actor leaves it for a while 'cause they ain't got a job.

~Wilford Brimley

The place was built on the premise that people want to gamble, and they may as well do it here. They look after their clientele, and, hell, they treat me like I'm one of their family.
