

Wilfred Bion

Quotes

Age, Evil, Memories, Obstruction, Reproach, Speech, Harbors, Lying, Ends, Hades, Beautiful, Followers, Misers, Dare, Leadership, Care, Inspirational, Bears, Wealth, Evolution

The purest form of listening is to listen without memory or desire.

~Wilfred Bion

To dare to be aware of the facts of the universe in which we are existing calls for courage.

~Wilfred Bion

A good leader makes a good follower.

~Wilfred Bion

Arrogance is a great obstruction to wisdom.

~Wilfred Bion

Wealth is the sinews of affairs.

~Wilfred Bion

To be unable to bear an ill is itself a great ill.

~Wilfred Bion

Old age is the harbor of all ills.

~Wilfred Bion

The end of a dissolute life is a desperate death.

~Wilfred Bion

Of all evil things the least quantity is to be borne, but of learning and knowledge, the more a man hath, the better he can bear it.

~Wilfred Bion

We ought not to heap reproaches on old age, seeing that we all hope to reach it.

~Wilfred Bion

Misers take care of property as if it belonged to them, but derive no more benefit from it than if it belonged to others.

~Wilfred Bion

The road to Hades is easy to travel.

~Wilfred Bion

Related Links:

- Age Quotes
- Evil Quotes
- Memories Quotes
- Obstruction Quotes
- Reproach Quotes
- Speech Quotes
- Harbors Quotes
- Lying Quotes
- Ends Quotes
- Hades Quotes
- Beautiful Quotes
- Followers Quotes
- Misers Quotes
- Dare Quotes
- Leadership Quotes
- Care Quotes
- Inspirational Quotes
- Bears Quotes
- Wealth Quotes
- Evolution Quotes