It was not noisy prejudice that caused the work of Mendel to lie dead for thirty years, but the sheer inability of contemporary opinion to distinguish between a new idea and nonsense.

~Wilfred Trotter

If we watch ourselves honestly we shall often find that we have begun to argue against a new idea even before it has been completely stated.

~Wilfred Trotter

The fundamental activity of medical science is to determine the ultimate causation of disease.

~Wilfred Trotter

Disease often tells its secrets in a casual parenthesis.
