I don't like having characters as props. I never want a character to be a prop.

~Will Gluck

I like doing character movies. I like doing movies about personal situations; that's what I love about dealing with things.

~Will Gluck

I like to deconstruct things, deconstruct genres and stories.

~Will Gluck

I don't think anyone says "Wow, the best sex I ever had was when I was 16 years old."

~Will Gluck

I try not to read the Internet because it's mostly just a sea of hatred.

~Will Gluck

When you have a movie about people landing from planet Neptune, you suspend disbelief. I totally get it. But I like doing things that happen in real life.

~Will Gluck

When I did TV shows and my other movies, I never try to do it for anybody. I just do what I think is good no matter what the genre is.

~Will Gluck

I put so much pop culture in my movies because we speak about pop culture all the time. But, for some reason, movies exist in a world where there's no pop culture.

~Will Gluck

People in movies and TV seem to be completely dumb to what's going on in the real world and relationships.

~Will Gluck

When you people have a set up joke and the joke is set up straight and the words are just well written, I always say "C'mon, humans don't speak that way."

~Will Gluck

You go through your career and you find people and cast who you love and you go through and keep them and you never want to let them go because you have a great repertory with them.

~Will Gluck

There are not that many roles in comedies that are completely driven by a young actress.
