I'm Southern Baptist, not a meteorologist.

~Willard Scott

Librarians have always been among the most thoughtful and helpful people. They are teachers without a classroom.

~Willard Scott

It's simply a tragedy that anyone today goes blind from glaucoma, when it's so unnecessary.

~Willard Scott

The only way to predict if there's a cloud on your horizon due to glaucoma is to get tested. No matter what the diagnosis, the forecast is for clear vision in the years ahead.

~Willard Scott

The TV weatherman has always been one of the best, most secure jobs. They change anchors, they change the set, producers come and go. But the weather person hangs on forever!

~Willard Scott

Positive feelings come from being honest about yourself and accepting your personality, and physical characteristics, warts and all; and, from belonging to a family that accepts you without question.

~Willard Scott

Take a microphone out of my hands, and I'm just plain folks.

~Willard Scott

As an only child, I never felt insecure and always had total love.

~Willard Scott

Nobody actually talks to anybody anymore. People in cubicles next to each other, they e-mail each other.

~Willard Scott

When I can, I do 25 minutes of calisthenics every day.

~Willard Scott

Viewers figure, 'Uncle Willard doesn't know any more about the weather than I do.' They're right.

~Willard Scott

Bryant Gumbel's ego has applied for statehood. And if it's accepted, it will be the fifth-largest.

~Willard Scott

I've produced more pilots than United Airlines, and they've all been disasters. Every audition I ever took in my life I lost.

~Willard Scott

Never slap a man who chews tobacco.

~Willard Scott

Tom Browkaw said it best. He said NBC could survive without him or the rest of the news division, but not Nancy Fields.

~Willard Scott

Everything I've ever done in my life has been a fluke.

~Willard Scott

There is something endearing about the weatherman.

~Willard Scott

I get all fired up about aging in America.

~Willard Scott

Remember Judy Garland? She retired 40 times.

~Willard Scott

I wore dresses all the time. I like to wear dresses.

~Willard Scott

If I go down in for anything in history, I would like to be known as the person who convinced the American people that catfish is one of the finest eating fishes in the world.

~Willard Scott

I got more mail than anybody on the history of The Today Show, but half of it was to get me off the air.

~Willard Scott

No libraries, no progress.

~Willard Scott

I have always said that the best training to be a TV newsman or anybody on television is to do a children's show because you are oblivious to the fact that there is a camera there.

~Willard Scott

Thanksgiving just gets me all warm and tingly and all kinds of wonderful inside.

~Willard Scott

These days, you have to have a gimmick to do the weather. You have to have an act.

~Willard Scott

Having a phobia has changed me.

~Willard Scott

I want to get my own show because 'Today' will eventually get tired of me, or the audience will get tired of me.

~Willard Scott

Nature's a tranquilizer as you get older.

~Willard Scott

The critics - how come you never see any of them on TV?

~Willard Scott

Just do the math. In the next 50 to 75 years, people will be living to be 130 and 140. They'll be working until they're 100. It's incredible.

~Willard Scott

I run me like a conglomerate, because that's what I am.

~Willard Scott

I've always had a reputation as a buffoon.

~Willard Scott

August depresses me a little. I don't even feel like eating. And when I don't eat, that's a sure sign of stagnation.

~Willard Scott

I talk too much. I eat too much.

~Willard Scott

I'd like to do 'Saturday Night Live.'

~Willard Scott
