I'm not afraid of failure; I'm afraid of succeeding at things that don't matter.

~William Carey

Expect great things from God, attempt great things for God.

~William Carey

It is the duty of those who are entrusted with the Gospel to endeavor to make it known among all nations.

~William Carey

Expect great things from God, receive great things from God. Expect little from God, receive little from God.

~William Carey

Prayer - secret, fervent, believing prayer - lies at the root of all personal godliness.

~William Carey

To know the will of God, we need an open Bible and an open map.

~William Carey

I will venture to go... but remember that you must hold the ropes.

~William Carey

Surely it is worthwhile to lay ourselves out with all our might in promoting the cause and kingdom of Christ.

~William Carey

There are grave difficulties on every hand, and more are looming ahead. Therefore, we must go forward.

~William Carey

The future is as bright as the promise of God.

~William Carey

You have been saying much about Dr. Carey and his work. When I am gone, say nothing about Dr. Carey; speak about Dr. Carey's Saviour.

~William Carey

Is not the commission of our Lord still binding upon us? Can we not do more than now we are doing?

~William Carey

If you want the Kingdom speeded, go out and speed it yourselves. Only obedience rationalizes prayer. Only Missions can redeem your intercessions from insincerity.

~William Carey

A Christian minister is a person who in a peculiar sense is not his own; he is the servant of God, and therefore ought to be wholly devoted to Him.

~William Carey

To belong to Jesus is to embrace the nations with Him.

~William Carey

I'm a dreamer and continue to dream of what can and will be,
"Expecting great things from God, Attempting great things for God"

~William Carey

I can plod. I can persevere in any definite pursuit. To this I owe everything.

~William Carey

The most glorious works of grace that have ever took place, have been in answer to prayer.

~William Carey

Every Christian should live life with an open Bible and an open map.

~William Carey

Without justification salvation is not of grace, but of works.

~William Carey

We have only to keep the end in view, and have our hearts thoroughly engaged in the pursuit of it, and means will not be very difficult.

~William Carey

All my friends are but one, but He is all sufficient.

~William Carey

One of the first, and most important of those duties which are incumbent upon us, is fervent and united prayer.

~William Carey

We must not be contented however with praying, without exerting ourselves in the use of means for the obtaining of those things we pray for.

~William Carey

I am very defective in all duties... In prayer I wander and am formal... I soon tire; devotion languishes; and I do not walk with God.

~William Carey

I feel it my duty to plod on while daylight last.

~William Carey

I went to India as a missionary to save England from spiritual collapse.

~William Carey

If the biographer gives me credit for being a plodder, he will describe me justly. Anything beyond this will be too much. I can plod. I can persevere in any definite pursuit. To this I owe everything.

~William Carey

The less said about me the better.

~William Carey
