There aren't any great men. There are just great challenges that ordinary men like you and me are forced by circumstances to meet.

~William Halsey

When this war is over, the Japanese language will be spoken only in hell!

~William Halsey

Hit hard, hit fast and hit often

~William Halsey

There are no great people in this world, only great challenges which ordinary people rise to meet.

~William Halsey

The Marine Corps has just been called by the New York Times, 'The elite of this country.' I think it is the elite of the world.

~William Halsey

There are no extraordinary men... just extraordinary circumstances that ordinary men are forced to deal with.

~William Halsey

I never trust a fighting man who doesn't smoke or drink.

~William Halsey

All problems become smaller if you don't dodge them, but confront them. Touch a thistle timidly, and it pricks you; grasp it boldly, and its spines crumble.

~William Halsey

The only good Jap is one that's been dead six months.

~William Halsey

All problems become smaller if you don't dodge them but confront them.

~William Halsey

Kill Japs, kill Japs, kill more Japs!

~William Halsey

There are no great men, only ordinary men, who have met extraordinary challenges.

~William Halsey

If you want to go anywhere in modern war, in the air, on the sea, on the land, you must have command of the air.

~William Halsey

There are no great men, just great circumstances, and how they handle those circumstances will determine the outcome of history.

~William Halsey

Strike fast, strike hard, strike often.
