Never mind what others do; do better than yourself, beat your own record from day to day, and you are a success.

~William J. H. Boetcker

That you may retain your self-respect, it is better to displease the people by doing what you know is right, than to temporarily please them by doing what you know is wrong.

~William J. H. Boetcker

No man will succeed unless he is ready to face and overcome difficulties and prepared to assume responsibilities.

~William J. H. Boetcker

You cannot build character and courage by destroying men's initiative and independence.

~William J. H. Boetcker

You can succeed if nobody else believes it, but you will never succeed if you don't believe in yourself.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Your success depends mainly upon what you think of yourself and whether you believe in yourself.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Your greatness is measured by your kindness.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Beware of ignorance when in motion; look out for inexperience when in action, and beware of the majority when mentally poisoned with misinformation, for collective ignorance does not become wisdom.

~William J. H. Boetcker

You cannot raise a man up by calling him down.

~William J. H. Boetcker

You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.

~William J. H. Boetcker

The individual activity of one man with backbone will do more than a thousand men with a mere wishbone.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Freedom of press and freedom of speech: What a blessing for a country while in the hands of honest, patriotic men; what a curse if in the hands of designing demagogues.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Better to be a strong man with a weak point, than to be a weak man without a strong point. A diamond with a flaw is more valuable than a brick without a flaw.

~William J. H. Boetcker

If you want to earn more - learn more.

~William J. H. Boetcker

We will never have real safety and security for wage earners unless we provide for safety and security for the wage payers and wage savers.

~William J. H. Boetcker

A man is judged by the company he keeps, and a company is judged by the men it keeps, and the people of Democratic nations are judged by the type and caliber of officers they elect.

~William J. H. Boetcker

What a different world this would be if people would listen to those who know more and not merely try to get something from those who have more.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Seven national crimes: 1. I don't think. 2. I don't know. 3. I don't care. 4. I am too busy. 5. I leave well enough alone. 6. I have no time to read and find out. 7. I am not interested.

~William J. H. Boetcker

The difficulties and struggles of today are but the price we must pay for the accomplishments and victories of tomorrow.

~William J. H. Boetcker

If you wish to succeed in managing and controlling others - learn to manage and control yourself.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Most men believe that it would benefit them if they could get a little from those who have more. How much more would it benefit them if they would learn a little from those who know more.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Nations begin to dig their own graves when men talk more of human rights and less of human duties.

~William J. H. Boetcker

For the self-development of men and women it is absolutely necessary that they should be alone with themselves at least one hour each day-to get the blessings of solitude.

~William J. H. Boetcker

If your business keeps you so busy that you have no time for anything else, there must be something wrong either with you or with your business.

~William J. H. Boetcker

You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than your income.

~William J. H. Boetcker

What a pleasure life would be to live if everybody would try to do only half of what he expects others to do.

~William J. H. Boetcker

It is better to displease the people by doing what you know is right.

~William J. H. Boetcker

You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money.

~William J. H. Boetcker

True religion... is giving and finding one's happiness by bringing happiness into the lives of others.

~William J. H. Boetcker

You cannot lift the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer.

~William J. H. Boetcker

And you cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they can and should do for themselves.

~William J. H. Boetcker

When men are so busy making money that they have no time for anything else, then the day is not far off when they will have no money for anything else.

~William J. H. Boetcker

If you want to know how rich you really are, find out what would be left of you tomorrow if you should lose every dollar you own tonight.

~William J. H. Boetcker

It is not what people do when they work, but what they do when they don't work that causes all their troubles.

~William J. H. Boetcker

When away from home always be like the kind of man you would care to take into your own home.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Are you appalled at existing conditions? Don't waste your energy trying to change conditions from without! Change the Human Heart from within.

~William J. H. Boetcker

You cannot help the small men, by tearing down the big men.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Men must be honest with themselves before they can be honest with others. A man who is not honest with himself presents a hopeless case.

~William J. H. Boetcker

If the majority of people of a country, no matter how great its natural resources, organize and conspire to get more out and put less in, to do less and get more, how long will, how long can it last?

~William J. H. Boetcker

The more you learn what to do with yourself, and the more you do for others, the more you will learn to enjoy the abundant life.

~William J. H. Boetcker

Men will get no more out of life than they put into it.

~William J. H. Boetcker

The more men, generally speaking, will do for a Dollar when they make it, the more that Dollar will do for them when they spend it.

~William J. H. Boetcker

No man can make good during working hours who does the wrong thing outside of working hours.
