This is New York, and there's no law against being annoying.

~William Kunstler

At first blush, it seems that the young people who were shot down in the parking lot at the base of Blanket Hill gave up their lives for a dream that died with them.

~William Kunstler

Our bodies must always be wherever that struggle and the moment we forget that, the moment we become lazy, the moment we sit back, then then the evil ones do their ordained tasks to us.

~William Kunstler

A dog is like a liberal. He wants to please everybody. A cat really doesn't need to know that everybody loves him.

~William Kunstler

May 4th is a particularly memorable day in American history because 84 years to the day before May 4, 1970, there was another demonstration at the Haymarket Square in Chicago.

~William Kunstler

There is a vast need for all types of protest today, whether it be civil disobedience, or whether it be on a - more conventional variety.

~William Kunstler

Civil disobedience is a viable political tactic, and a non-violent tactic.

~William Kunstler

A dog is a liberal... He wants to please everybody.

~William Kunstler

So May 4th in the labor movement has always been an important date.

~William Kunstler

I believe in civil disobedience among other forms of resistance in times when it's called for.

~William Kunstler

I favor massive civil disobedience, among other things. It is not the only thing that is used to protest any grievance in society. But it is one of the most effective under certain conditions.

~William Kunstler

Four years earlier I had been selected, with Kay Boyle, the writer, and a number of others, to go to Cambodia and come back and prove that there were no sanctuaries in that country.
