

William Morley Punshon Quotes

Men, May, Age, Heart, Real, Dresses, Double Minded, Enemy, Rays, Journey, Speak, Charity, Jesus, Rocks, Darkness, Appreciation, Disappointment, Morning, Patient, Character

Labor is the true alchemist that beats out in patient transmutation the baser metals into gold.

~William Morley Punshon

Cowardice asks: Is it safe? Expediency asks: Is it politic? But Conscience asks: Is it right?

~William Morley Punshon

There is no inevitable connection between Christianity and cynicism. Truth is not a salad, is it, that you must always dress it with vinegar?

~William Morley Punshon

Let a man be firmly principled in his religion, he may travel from the tropics to the poles, it will never catch cold on the journey.

~William Morley Punshon

There are no trifles in the moral universe of God. Speak me a word to-day; ? it shall go ringing on through the ages.

~William Morley Punshon

Our days of praise shall ne'er be past While life, and thought, and being last, And immortality endures.

~William Morley Punshon

We may not substitute charity for godliness; but there is room for the Divine love in the heart which has been touched by the human.

~William Morley Punshon

Related Links:

- Men Quotes
- May Quotes
- Age Quotes
- Heart Quotes
- Real Quotes
- Dresses Quotes
- Double Minded Quotes
- Enemy Quotes
- Rays Quotes
- Journey Quotes
- Speak Quotes
- Charity Quotes
- Jesus Quotes
- Rocks Quotes
- Darkness Quotes
- Appreciation Quotes
- Disappointment Quotes
- Morning Quotes
- Patient Quotes
- Character Quotes