~William Randolph Hearst

Don't be afraid to make a mistake, your readers might like it.

~William Randolph Hearst

When free discussion is denied, hardening of the arteries of democracy has set in, free institutions are but a lifeless form, and the death of the republic is at hand.

~William Randolph Hearst

Truth is not only stranger than fiction, it is more interesting.

~William Randolph Hearst

We must be alarmingly enterprising, and we must be startlingly original, and do new and striking things which constitute a revolution.

~William Randolph Hearst

I do not think that any man should be attacked because of his race or religion, or that he should be immune from attack because of race or religion.

~William Randolph Hearst

Users of marijuana become STIMULATED as they inhale the drug and are LIKELY TO DO ANYTHING. Most crimes of violence in this section, especially in country districts are laid to users of that drug.

~William Randolph Hearst

Putting out a newspaper without promotion is like winking at a girl in the dark -- well-intentioned, but ineffective.

~William Randolph Hearst

My experience has proved that a man who is running for office, and is not willing to make his honest opinions known to the public, either has no honest opinions or is not honest about them.

~William Randolph Hearst

A politician will do anything to keep his job - even become a patriot.

~William Randolph Hearst

Most criminals are not born; they are made.... What the State really punishes in a criminal is often its own neglect, its own failure to do its duty to the citizen.

~William Randolph Hearst

All work and no play may make Jim a dull boy, but no work and all play makes Jim all kinds of a jackass.

~William Randolph Hearst

It is a good thing that women are so easily manipulated. Otherwise, most of us wouldn't be here.

~William Randolph Hearst

The distribution of wealth is just as important as its creation.

~William Randolph Hearst

Whatever begins to be tranquil is gobbled up by something not tranquil.

~William Randolph Hearst

It is the unpleasant and unacceptable face of capitalism, but one should not suggest that the whole of British industry consists of practices of this kind.

~William Randolph Hearst

We hold that no person or set of persons can properly establish a standard of expression for others.

~William Randolph Hearst

The coming of the motion picture was as important as that of the printing press.
