The greatest tragedy of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict is that everyone knows how it will end. We will divide up the region.

~Yair Lapid

Being a Jew and an Israeli are inseparable things.

~Yair Lapid

I used to have so many opinions before I learned the facts.

~Yair Lapid

Any man who is not a communist at the age of 20 is a fool.

~Yair Lapid

The majority of Israelis want change, the Netanyahu era is coming to an end. That's not because security issues don't matter but because social and economic issues are dominating the agenda.

~Yair Lapid

I felt that we had become a society ruled by sectors, by interest groups: Whoever's connected to the Israeli government gets more.

~Yair Lapid

When you look at the history of wars, they ultimately revolve around one claim: "My god is better than yours."

~Yair Lapid

There is a difference between a small community being herded into a park and murdered and all of these communities joining forces to make sure that something like that will not happen again.

~Yair Lapid

I don't think Israel's becoming more religious, I think its politics is becoming more religious. There's a difference.
