I'm not ashamed of anything that I've done because when I did it, I was passionate about it and I was doing it for a reason.

~Yelawolf

Entangled between a dream and a coma.

~Yelawolf

Yeah, I have animosity, a chip on my shoulder. But I love, too.

~Yelawolf

I can tell you that when you're willing to give your life up to see a dream through, the reward is great.

~Yelawolf

Sometimes I want to party, sometimes I want to fight and sometimes I want to cry.

~Yelawolf

Name Yellow Wolf comes from life experiences. Yellow is the color of the sun - its power, fire, and hunger. Wolf represents my fierceness and ability to survive.

~Yelawolf

I don't go to clubs and throw money and pop bottles. That's not my thing, no disrespect.

~Yelawolf

Triple 6 Mafia and Mystikal in Atlanta was one of my first shows. I remember how sweaty and smashed up everybody was, and it was so punk rock.

~Yelawolf

For real, some of my favorite music is Mexican. It's something about the bassline and the drumming. I can't even speak Spanish, but that's probably why I like it so much.

~Yelawolf

Anyone can relate to struggle, whether you're European or Asian. Anyone can relate to having to get up and go to work and eat.

~Yelawolf

I'm never scared what people are gonna think about music that I make.

~Yelawolf

Hip-hop is the only music in the world where you can take any instrument and make it hip hop. It's anybody's music. It's what you make of it. That's for anything you do in life.

~Yelawolf

Fans are all I care about - to be honest. If they stop coming to the shows, then I will get worried.

~Yelawolf

Most of my albums have a concept. They all have some kind of theme, some kind of feeling. I really take pride in that.

~Yelawolf

American music culture is black culture.

~Yelawolf

Yela represents hunger, life, light, fire, power. Wolf speaks to my fighting spirit. The soul I put in my music.

~Yelawolf

Just because a rapper is white, I don't feel the need to attack them.

~Yelawolf

How many ya'll parents smoke weed? My momma still grows illegal weed in Alabama.

~Yelawolf

Where I'm from is like 'Hustle Flow' versus '8 Mile.' It's that really grimy, box-Chevy, dope-boy, working-class music.

~Yelawolf

You don't want to get stuck with a record that you've done with someone that you feel obligated to put out - that's not really dope, just because you made an effort to get together and work.

~Yelawolf

Melody always comes to me first before words - cadence and melody. When you're humming the melody and it's incredible and words start coming out it can build into something special.

~Yelawolf

My grandmother, grandfather, my mom - we've always been driven by laughter. It's what held us together. Thanksgivings, any kind of family get-together, we usually end up in tears.

~Yelawolf

I don't sit under the tattoo gun unless I'm sold on it completely and it will define me as a person.

~Yelawolf

I think any artist that's going to become anything in this world faces humility: with great humility comes great success.

~Yelawolf

You learn how to be an individual quick after 15 schools, man. After the first five or six, you realize you're always gonna be the new kid.

~Yelawolf

I'm always gonna have the darker edgy music; it is always in my pocket because it comes so naturally to me.

~Yelawolf

The way I perceive an album to sound and the way I put out mixtapes are two different energies. There's a different focus; there's a different sound.

~Yelawolf

This is hip-hop. If you've got something you want to rap about, just rap about it, man.

~Yelawolf

I just want to make a classic. Classic is the standard. I'm just trying to make music that will last a lifetime.

~Yelawolf

I love performing. I love getting out there. It's kind of like why I make music.

~Yelawolf

Hip-hop for me has always been hardcore and edgy.

~Yelawolf

I do so much music that it's like a fog, and I can't even remember all of it.

~Yelawolf

My fans are like no other. Completely original people.

~Yelawolf

I definitely prefer intimate crowds. I mean, those are always the best shows, like, a small venue. Packed to the gills. Hot, sweaty. Those are always the fun shows.

~Yelawolf

I'm never in the mood to eat or drink when I get to a show. I'm just too nerved out.

~Yelawolf

It's hard being a white rapper sometimes! When that happens you just need to battle through.

~Yelawolf

You can usually tell when people aren't being authentic, but that goes for every artist, not just white artists.

~Yelawolf

I equally love both, classic rock and hip-hop. I love all music, really, and I really use classic rock a lot. I'm heavily influenced by that melodically in my music. I can't really separate the two.

~Yelawolf

People are not really that forgiving when they pay for tickets to come see you and you don't show up.

~Yelawolf

The best part of performing is the people. I love interacting with people. My favorite part is the crowd. I love rocking out with the crowd, that's definitely the best part.

~Yelawolf

1,2,3, I'm at the Chelsey Hotel, like, Sid and Nancy, with knife, and two grams of candy
