Education is not simply to learn to read and write. It's emancipation. It makes you free.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

Honour your daughters, trust them and most importantly, educate them.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

You may think I'm brave. But in the eyes of many people back in my country I am a coward. They think, this man gave so much freedom to his daughter, he broke all the traditions of our society.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

Trust your daughters, they are faithful. Honor your daughters, they are honorable. Educate your daughters, they are amazing.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

When in many societies, fathers are usually known by their sons, I am one of the few fathers who is known by his daughter, and I'm proud of it.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

Education is power. It is just like a light in complete darkness.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

I did not clip the wings of my daughter to fly.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

She became a very famous, very popular young girl. Before that, she was my daughter, but now I'm her father.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

On his daughter Malala Yousafzai: She was very articulate, more than me. She could say things in a very few words that I take a long time to communicate.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

When the voice of truth rises from the minarets, the Buddha smiles, and the broken chain of history reconnects.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

The world turned into a big black hole while my daughter was on the verge of life and death.

~Ziauddin Yousafzai

A good girl is supposed to be very quiet
