We(Pakistan) will eat grass, even go hungry, but we will get one of our own (Atom bomb).... We have no other choice!

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

If things do not change, there will be nothing left to change. Either power must pass to the people or everything will perish.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

I am guiding you to seek truth from the facts of the historical conditions of our society and to identify the problems. The correct solutions will come with the correct identification of the problems.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

If the people wanted my head I would bow without demur. If I had lost the confidence or respect of the people I would not want to live. The tragedy of the drama is that the very opposite is true.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

A regime which puts in a bunker the highest law in the land does not have the moral authority to say that nobody is above the law.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Lets build a monument for the veto. Lets build a monument for impotence and incapacity.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Pakistan was once called the most allied ally of the United States. We are now the most non-allied.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Mrs. [Indira] Gandhi can rightly boast of having won a war, but if she won it, she should first of all thank Yahya Khan and his gang of illiterate psychopaths.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

I'm not trying to minimize things; I'm trying to bring them back to reality.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

There's only one man really responsible for those events - Yahya Khan. Both he and his advisers were so drunk with power and corruption they'd even forgotten the honor of the army.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Every government, every country, has the right to exercise force when necessary.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

I tried to explain that there was a great difference between me and Mujib [Rahiman]: he was a secessionist and I wasn't.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

To conclude, the tragedy of March 25 [1969] caught me by surprise. Yahya Khan fooled even me.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

For instance, in the name of unity. You can't build without destroying.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Yahya Khan wasn't interested in the government of the country, he was interested in power for its own sake and nothing else.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Tikka Khan was a soldier doing a soldier's job.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

What can you say of a leader who starts drinking as soon as he wakes up and doesn't stop until he goes to bed? You've no idea how painful it was to deal with Yahya Khan. He was really Jack the Ripper.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Mujib [Rahman], as you've seen, is a congenital liar. He can't help telling lies - it's something stronger than he.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

[Yahya Khan] thought of nothing but acquiring beautiful cars, building beautiful homes, making friends with bankers, and sending money abroad.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Even to get Yahya Khan to reason was an impossible task - it only made you lose your temper.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

I don't say it in the Indian fashion that is hypocritically. I say it sincerely because, instead of hatred, I feel great compassion for Mujib Rahiman.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

[Yahya Khan ] I have a big problem on my hands with him. I've set up a war commission to study the responsibilities inherent in the recent conflict.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Mujib [Rahman] talks at random, depending on his mood and the disorders of his sick mind.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

I can't destroy the whole army, and anyway [Tikka Khan] bad reputation for the events in Dacca is exaggerated.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

The fact is that when you talk about Mujib [Rahiman], everything seems so incredible. I don't understand how the world can take him seriously.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

We know who left the country. And many were Bengalis from West Bengal, sent from Calcutta. It was she who sent them - Mrs.[Indira] Gandhi.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Yes, there are circumstances where a bloody suppression is justifiable and justified.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

Tikka Khan won't try to stick his nose in politics.

~Zulfikar Ali Bhutto

I would not let myself be intimidated by Yahya Khan, his methods had led us to disaster.
